

Membership Application “Blue Economy Alliance”

Blue Economy Alliance – our Global Knowledge Sharing

Existing knowledge often carries the potential of generating new knowledge therefore company value. To achieve this, experts have to exchange information and begin to actively cooperate. The Blue Economy Alliance functions as a platform for companies, innovators and scientists. It systematically supports the networking and expansion of existing innovations as well as generating promising new approaches.

An Alliance Partnership is the most suitable way to make a maximum – continuous – use of the Blue Economy. Members which comply with especially high ethical exigencies are elected to form part of the senators’ board and will participate in the selection of subjects.
